This exhibition is the first of its kind at Frank Taal Gallery. 11 Artists exhibit in this exhibition all working, in many senses, beyond figuration. The emphasis of the show is on the unknown yet common place, the depictable and recognizable but non-figurative:

Maybe simple shapes, primary colours - an assumed simplicity that obscures a reality too complex to perhaps ever comprehend. Images as residues, as questions. Questions for the artist, for the audience, a form of meditation, an unanswerable question posed to the universe - what the fuck are you? Perennial conceits, for me as the co-curator of this exhibition, are specifically what I try to avoid in my own artwork and what I believe the artists invited for this show are able to skillfully and elegantly avoid.
